THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Saturday Evening, June 30, 1866.

FOR GOVERNOR,

JONATHAN WORTH,

OF RANDOLPH.

First of July.

Quite a number of our subscribers have paid up to the 1st. of July. We hope all will renew promptly by that time. Look out for the cross mark.

The New Constitution.

Our readers will observe, that most of our space to-day, is occupied by the new Constitution adopted by the late Convention.

It is so important a document and it is so needful that it shall be placed in the hands of the people at the earliest period, we cheerfully appropriate most of our space to it.

We must reserve to a future day any expression of opinion, as to the character of the Constitution itself.

The Convention at the close of the session, having limited its official publication to only two papers in the State, the Secretary of State after consultation, determined to carry out the law in the case, by a more certain method of diffusing it among the people, and at much less expense, than could have been done, by its mere publication in the columns of the two newspapers, till the day of election.

To effect these two objects, first its more general circulation, and secondly, to lessen the expense, he limits the publication in the two papers designated by the Convention, to one insertion in each, but requires them to issue such a number of extras through the agency of their subscribers, as will secure a large distribution of the document into all parts of the State. This, with the number of copies sent directly to the Clerks and Sheriffs of each county, will it is believed, put it into the hands of all the people before the election.

The character of the document however, is so important, that we have no doubt many of our cotemporaries will publish it, free of expense, which however the Convention had no right to claim or expect. We regret that that body did not order its publication at least one time, in every paper in the State. That would have been no more than sheer justice to the press and to the people.

"Thus it will be seen that our political affairs are in much confusion. We have been in hopes that our people would not be called away from the work of practical reconstruction to engage in exciting political campaigns, and believe now that our present Governor should be re-elected without opposition, as he appears to be acceptable to the great mass of our people, and is, we firmly believe, doing much to promote the great interests of the State, without regard to old party organizations. He may not be so ready to pay the debt the Standard thinks we owe to Congress, but certainly on this account, no fair minded man will impugn the honesty of Jonathan Worth, for he has always been in favor of the State meeting promptly all her honest obligations, and if Congress will yet by any legislation propose such terms as North Carolina can accept, or will do aught to restore the Union upon an honorable and equitable basis, Governor Worth will be among the foremost to acknowledge the debt and urge the payment."

We clip the above from the Wilmington Journal, whose Editor has been in a position to understand, whereof he speaks. If there be any discord or divisions among the friends of a Constitutional Union upon the policy of President Johnson in this State, Gov. Worth will in no sense be responsible for it. If ever a man filling the office of Governor at a trying crisis, labored conscientiously and honestly to discharge his obligations to the government and to all classes of his people, Gov. Worth is that man. His ripe experience in public affairs, his strong common sense and his legal knowledge, have all been subordinate to the one purpose of restoring harmony with the Federal government and with all classes in the State, with special reference to the encouragement and promotion of the welfare of the State, pecuniarily and politically.

The truly conservative men of the State, of all parties, owe him a debt of gratitude, for the self-sacrifice and devotion to their best interests which he evinced, in coming forward as a candidate for Governor and at a time when Radicalism menaced and threatened to over-run the State. If he has not been partizan enough to satisfy some of his friends, it is because he was too patriotic to be a partizan at a time like this.

Some of his friends complain, that in bestowing the little patronage a Governor has, he has ignored a large class of his supporters. If such appears to be the case, on the outside, to any one it is because they are not aware of the local and other influences, not partizan, which have controlled his action, where there were so few offices to dispense among so many worthy to fill them. Gov. Worth's position is emphatic, that he will not ignore any true man now, because of his former party affiliations, much less will he ignore his friends on that account; but in selecting for office among so many, to fill the few places he has within his control, local, and often considerations of State policy must influence his action.

CONSTITUTION OF NORTH CAROLINA.

We, the delegates of the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, for the purpose of amending the Constitution of the State, having consolidated the same as adopted on the eighteenth day of December, A. D., one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, with the amendments thereto, which were ratified on the eleventh day of July, A. D., one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, together with sundry amendments adopted in the years one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one and one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and other amendments adopted by this Convention, do ordain and establish the following Constitution for the State:

ARTICLE I.

DECLARATION OF RIGHTS.

SECTION 1. All political power is vested in and derived from the people only.

SEC. 2. The people of this State ought to have the sole and exclusive right of regulating the internal government and police thereof.

SEC. 3. No man or set of men are entitled to exclusive or separate emoluments or privileges from the community, but in consideration of public services.

SEC. 4. The legislative, executive, and supreme judicial powers of government ought to be forever separate and distinct from each other.

SEC. 5. All power of suspending laws, or the execution of laws, by any authority, without consent of the representatives of the people, is injurious to their rights, and ought not to be exercised.

SEC. 6. Elections of members to serve as representatives in General Assembly ought to be free.

SEC. 7. In all criminal prosecutions, every man has a right to be informed of the accusation against him, and to confront the accusers and witnesses with other testimony, and to have counsel for his defence, and shall not be compelled to give evidence against himself.

SEC. 8. No freeman shall be put to answer any criminal charge, except as hereinafter allowed, but by indictment, presentment, or impeachment.

SEC. 9. No freeman shall be convicted of any crime, but by the unanimous verdict of a jury of good and lawful men, in open court, as heretofore used: The Legislature may, however, provide other modes of trial for petty misdemeanors, with the right of appeal.

SEC. 10. Excessive bail should not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor unusual punishments inflicted.

SEC. 11. General warrants, whereby any officer or messenger may be commanded to search suspected places without evidence of the fact committed, or to seize any person or persons not named whose offence is not particularly described and supported by evidence, are dangerous to liberty, and ought not to be granted.

SEC. 12. No freeman ought to be taken, imprisoned, or disseized of his freehold, liberties, or privileges, or outlawed, or exiled, or in any manner destroyed, or deprived, of his life, liberty, or property, but by the law of the land.

SEC. 13. Every freeman, restrained of his liberty, is entitled to a remedy to inquire into the lawfulness thereof, and to remove the same if unlawful, and such remedy ought not to be denied or delayed.

SEC. 14. In all controversies at law respecting property, the ancient mode of trial by jury is one of the best securities of the rights of the people, and ought to remain sacred and inviolable.

SEC. 15. The freedom of the press is one of the great bulwarks of liberty, and therefore ought never to be restrained.

SEC. 16. The people of this State ought not to be taxed, or made subject to the payment of any impost or duty, without the consent of themselves, or their representatives in General Assembly, freely given.

SEC. 17. The people have a right to bear arms for the defence of the State; and, as standing armies in time of peace are dangerous to liberty, they ought not to be kept up; and the military should be kept under strict subordination to, and governed by, the civil power.

SEC. 18. The people have a right to assemble together, to consult for their common good, to instruct their representatives, and to apply to the legislature for redress of grievances.

SEC. 19 All men have a natural and unalienable right to worship Almighty God according to the dictates of their own consciences.

SEC. 20 For redress of grievances, and for amending and strengthening the laws, elections ought to be often held.

SEC. 21. A frequent recurrence to fundamental principles is absolutely necessary to preserve the blessings of liberty.

SEC. 22. No hereditary emoluments, privileges, or honors ought to be granted or conferred in this State.

SEC. 23. Perpetuities and monopolies are contrary to the genius of a free State, and ought not to be allowed.

SEC. 24. Retrospective laws, punishing facts committed before the existence of such laws, and by them only declared criminal, are oppressive, unjust, and incompatible with liberty; wherefore, no ex post facto law ought to be made.

SEC. 25. Slavery and involuntary servitude otherwise than for crimes, whereof the parties shall have been duly convicted, shall be, and is hereby forever prohibited within the State.

SEC. 26. The limits and boundaries of the State shall be and remain as they now are.

SEC. 27. All courts shall be open, and every person, for an injury done him in his lands, goods, person or reputation, shall have remedy by due course of law, and right and justice administered without sale, denial or delay.

SEC. 28. No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner; nor in time of war, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

ARTICLE II.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

SECTION 1. The legislative authority shall be vested in two distinct branches, both dependent on the people, to-wit: a Senate and House of Commons.

SEC. 2. The Senate shall consist of fifty representatives, biennially chosen by ballot, and elected by districts; which districts shall remain as they are until the first session of the General Assembly after the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one; and at such session, and then every ten years thereafter, shall be laid off by the General Assembly, in proportion to the public taxes paid into the Treasury of the State by the citizens thereof; and the average of the public taxes paid by each county into the Treasury of the State, for the three years preceding the laying off of the districts, shall be considered as its proportion of the public taxes, and constitute the basis of apportionment: Provided, That no county shall be divided in the formation of a Senatorial district; and when there are one or more counties, having an excess of taxation above the ratio to form a Senatorial district, adjoining a county or counties deficient in such ratio, the excess or excesses aforesaid shall be added to the taxation of the county or counties deficient; and if, with such addition, the county or counties receiving it shall have the requisite ratio, such county and counties each shall constitute a Senatorial district.

SEC. 3. The House of Commons shall be composed of one hundred and twenty representatives, biennially chosen by ballot, to be elected by the counties respectively, according to their entire respective white population, and each county shall have at least one member in the House of Commons, although it may not contain the requisite ratio of white population.

SEC. 4. This apportionment shall be made by the General Assembly, at the respective times and periods when the districts for the Senate are hereinbefore directed to be laid off; and the said apportionment shall be made according to an enumeration to be ordered by the General Assembly, or according to the census which may be taken by order of Congress, next preceding the period of making such apportionment.

SEC. 5. In making the apportionment in the House of Commons, the ratio of representation shall be ascertained by dividing the amount of the white population in the State, after deducting that comprehended within those counties, which do not severally contain the one hundred and twentieth part of the entire white population aforesaid, by the number of representatives less the number assigned to the said counties. To each county containing the said ratio, and not twice the said ratio, there shall be assigned one representative; to each county containing twice, but not three times the said ratio, there shall be assigned two representatives, and so on progressively; and then the remaining representatives shall be assigned severally to the counties having the largest fractions.

SEC. 6. No new county shall be formed and established, unless there shall be, within the proposed boundaries thereof, the one hundred and twentieth part of the entire white population of the State; nor if the population of the county, or any of the counties, from which it may be proposed to form and establish the same, shall thereby be reduced below the one hundred and twentieth part of the entire white population of the State.

AN ORDINANCE

SUBMITTING TO THE QUALIFIED VOTERS OF THE STATE THE RATIFICATION OR REJECTION OF THE CONSTITUTION ADOPTED BY THE CONVENTION.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, That the Constitution of the State, adopted by this Convention, be submitted by the Governor to the people on the first Thursday of August next, thirty days notice having been given, and that the polls be opened by the respective Sheriffs and kept open for three successive days, at the several election precincts in each and every County in the State, under the same rules and regulations as now exist for the election of members of the General Assembly: That the said Sheriffs be required to compare and certify the results of the election, on or before the Thursday following, and transmit the same in twenty days thereafter to the Governor of the State: That all persons qualified to vote for members of the General Assembly, may vote for or against the ratification of the same: Those who wish a ratification of the Constitution voting with a printed or written ticket, "RATIFICATION;" those of a contrary opinion, "REJECTION." It shall be the duty of the Sheriffs to make duplicate statements of the polls in their respective Counties, sworn before the Clerk of the County Court, one copy of which shall be deposited in said Clerk's office, and the other copy transmitted to the Governor of the State at Raleigh.

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained, That when the returns aforesaid shall have been received, the same shall be opened by the Governor, in the presence of the Secretary of State and Treasurer, and in case a majority of the votes polled shall be in favor of a ratification of the Constitution, the same shall be forthwith made known by a proclamation of the Governor to the people of the State; and thereupon the Governor shall cause to be endorsed on the Constitution as enrolled by order of the Convention, or shall annex thereto a certificate, under his signature, declaring that the said Constitution has been ratified by the people of North Carolina; and the Secretary of State shall coun-

RALEIGH, N. C., June 26th. 1866. }

I, ROBERT W. BEST, Secretary of State, in and for the State of North Carolina, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the original on file in this office.

Given under my hand the 26th. day of June, A. D., 1866.

Negroes to Rule the District of Columbia.

In the Senate, Wednesday, Mr. Morrill called up the Senate bill to regulate the elective franchise in the District of Columbia.

Mr. Morrill offered an amendment disfranchising those who left the District voluntarily to enter the rebel service.

Mr. Brown, of Missouri, expressed himself as opposed to the permanent distranchisement of those who had taken part in the rebellion. He believed that universal suffrage would render the rebel votes innocuous, and was the only mode of reconstruction that would give us safety hereafter. He did not wish suffrage to be thus restricted, or by educational qualifications.

The amendment was agreed to.

Mr. Willey offered an amendment striking out the first section of the bill, and in lieu thereof inserting a provision that in elections hereafter to be held in the District of Columbia the following described persons, and these only, shall have a right to vote: All persons who are actual residents and who were entitled to vote in 1865; all persons who have been duly mustered out of the United States service, or may hereafter be mustered out, and previously resided in the District one year; all male citizens of the United States twenty-one years of age, excepting paupers, persons non compos mentis, or persons convicted of an infamous offence, who, being residents of the ward or district in which they vote, shall have resided there for one year next preceding any election, and who shall have paid the taxes assessed against them, and who can read and write their names.

The Constitutional Amendment in Louisiana.

NEW ORLEANS, June 26.—A caucus of the Convention of 1864 was held to-day. All reporters were excluded except the Tribune correspondent. Judge Howell presided pro tempore, and was authorized to counsel with the Governor, and together issue a call for the reassembling of the Convention in the latter part of July. The object of the Convention is undoubtedly to ratify the Constitutional amendment.

This may be a clever scheme for swindling the Louisianians into ratifying the amendment; but fortunately it will not answer. The ratification must be by the State Legislature.

The Texas Election.

GALVESTON, June 25.

The election in this State passed off quietly.

Thockmorton, the conservative candidate for Governor, has a large majority in this city, and will probably get nine-tenths of the vote of the State.

LATER.

GALVESTON, June 26.

The Union vote is unexpectedly large, and will probable reach one-third.

The conservatives voted solid for the amendment to the State Constitution.

The Unionists voted against it.

MORE ABOUT THE MINISTER WHO WHIPPED HIS CHILD TO DEATH FOR NOT SAYING HIS PRAYERS.—The account of the whipping to death of a child three years old by its father, a clergyman, because it would not say its prayers, near Medina, published yesterday, awakened the greatest indignation of our citizens against the inhuman father. The report was hardly credited, so unnatural and monstrous was the crime committed. We blush to say it, but the most sickening and dreadful part of the unparalleled horror was not published.

Lindsley's (that is the monster's name) statement before the coroner's jury, given yesterday, was corroborated by other witnesses before the jury. The body of the child told more plainly and emphatically than words could of the terrible punishment it had undergone. Several of its fingers were broken, and the blood oozed from every pore. To conceal the crime, the father tied the little one's hands behind its back and placed it in its coffin. While physicians were making a post mortem examination of the body, he sat by, coolly looking at the proceedings.—After a while he spoke, and asked them if they had not "carried this thing about far enough." The physicians discovered no disease about the child; it died solely from excessive and cruel punishment. The little one would have been three years old next August—whipped to death because it would not say its prayers.

We are told that Lindsley justifies his horrid work. He thinks that it was his duty to punish the child until his will was broken and he obeyed. Lindsley was arrested yesterday and committed to jail in Albion. It was with the utmost difficulty that the officers who had him in charge could keep the citizens of Medina and neighborhood from lynching the murderer on the spot. Lindsley is a man of about five feet eight inches in height, well proportioned, has black whiskers, and dark complexion. He has the appearance of a man of violent temper.

The murder is the all absorbing topic of Orleans county.—Rochester Union, 22nd.

IT IS STATED that General Cass's large fortune of four or five millions of dollars had its origin in his fortunate investment in real estate in what is now the heart of the city of Detroit; and the heirs of the deceased statesman may thank the late Mrs. Cass, who died in 1855, for the great wealth they inherit. Repeatedly, when the property was rising in value, years ago, the General was anxious to sell, and was only restrained by the earnest advice and remonstrance of his wife.

A man in Indiana applied for a divorce because his wife went skating against his wishes, and he wanted to let her slide.—Boston Post

THE SENTINEL.

Saturday Evening, June 30, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS

S. G. Dupre and B. A. Spence, Admrs., give notice to persons having claims against the estate of W. J. Allen, deceased.

The Fall session of Belmont School, Granville, (R. H. Graves; Principal,) will commence on the 27th. of July.

We invite attention to the Card of Leon, Arnold & Co., Importers and Jobbers of Goods for men's wear, 320 & 322 Broadway, N. Y. With them is Mr. L. E. Satterthwaite, of this State.

The INTERESTING communication of "Gaston" from Asheville, has been received and shall appear in our next.

DEATH OF COL. JNO. W. CAMERON.—We announce, with deep pain, the death of Col. Jno. W. Cameron, of Richmond Co., who died at his residence in that County, on Friday last, from an affliction of the liver, in the 52nd. year of his age.

Col. Cameron was a gentleman of fine abilities, and has occupied many positions of prominence. The State sustains a loss in his death.

Our space compels us to defer, until our next, a biographical sketch of the lamented deceased from the Wadesboro Argus.

WE TAKE pleasure in calling the attention of the public to the Advertisement of the Ætna Life Insurance Company. The General Agent is W. H. Crow, our enterprizing and indefatigable townsman. He has shown us the report of the Company. They had $3,000,000 assests the 1st of June. They have also paid Mr. Justus Kinsey's policy of $5,000, promptly.

We ourselves have invested in this Company for our family, and believe it to be a safe and reliable Institution. It pays 5 per cent of the receipts into the State Treasury. Mr. C., will accommodate all who will wait upon him, no doubt.

GEN. SICKLES.—This officer, now commanding the military Department of North and South Carolina, arrived at Wilmington from Charleston, per the steamer Cosmopolitan, on Thursday last. According to the Quarantine Regulations, the vessel should have remained below, but without waiting for the Physician, came up to the city. The General being called upon by the authorities, he stated that he had suspended the Quarantine laws in the case of that vessel! The affair caused some dissatisfaction.

TILTAREENS.—The Wilmington Journal announces the introduction of that ridiculous form of skirts called tiltareens in that City.—Whatnext?

THE PRISONERS AT THE DRY TORTUGAS.—William White, of Henrico county, Va., one of the prisoners at the Dry Tortugas, who was recently pardoned, has arrived at Memphis. He is quite a youth, and had been confined on the island about two years, under conviction of being a spy during the war. The Memphis Appeal says:

Mr. White was for a time a room-mate of Dr. Mudd, who was sentenced to hard lalor for life in the Dry Tortugas, for alleged aiding in Booth's escape after the murder of Mr. Lincoln. The Doctor's health is rapidly failing, and Mr. White believes he will not live through the summer. Spangler and Arnold are quite well, and even their confinement does not seem very seriously to affect their general physical or mental well being. The State pri oners are compelled to rise at 5 o'clock, A.M.; after breakfasting at 7, go out to work, and are employed in cutting and carrying stone to build the fort until 12 o'clock, when one hour's intermission is allowed, the work being resumed at 1 P. M., and continued until 5 o'clock. On rainy days no work is required.

The same rations issued to the United States soldiers is distributed to the prisoners, and though coarse, is abundant and wholesome in quality. He represents the island as sterile and depressing in appearance, but so cooled by refreshing sea breezes, and the condensed water used is palatable and healthy. He further says a marked improvment in the treatment of the prisoners has been instituted by the officers and soldiers of the Tenth United States regular infantry, who relieved the former garrison of negro soldiers. When the news of the fall of Richmond arrived, an issue of whisky to "all hands" was made in honor of the event, and the prisoners were liberally included; but though many of them had been for a long time deprived of the luxury, five of the number, including Mr. White, refused to touch it, or enjoy the holiday also granted to all on the island, in celebration of such a singal triumph of the Union arms. The prisoners are occasionally so fortunate as to obtain Havana cigars and tropical fruits from the neighboring island of Cuba, and the Federal officers humanely permit the indulgence.

Ratification of the Constitutional Amendment in the Connecticut Legislature.

NEW HAVEN, June 27, 1866.

The House to-day concurred with the Senate in ratification of the constitutional amendment by a straight party vote. A hundred guns were fired on the green in honor of the occasion. Connecticut is the first State to ratify this amendment.

"The Unionist who finally falls, falls to rise no more," says The Standard. We presume this statement is based upon its own experience. Having once been the organ of the secession party in North Carolina, and being now, as it is proclaimed a few days ago, the only loyal paper published in the Atlantic States, it may be readily inferred why it is that a nullifier is in better odor than a "non-secessionist."—Greensboro Patriot.

A French gentleman, M. Auguste Laugel, for a long time a contributor to the Revue des Deux Mondes, has written a book entitled "The United States During the War." In his remarks on the women of America he says: "With her alone, perhaps in all the world, the conjugal is stronger than the maternal love."

THE PLEASURE OF GIVING.—I am rich enough, and can afford to give away one hundred pounds a year. I would not crawl upon the earth without doing a little for truth. I will enjoy the pleasure of what I give by giving it alive and seeing another enjoy it. When I die I should be ashamed to leave enough for a monument, if there was a wanting friend above ground.—Pope to Swift.

Rumored change in the Cabinet,—Monitors as Sea going Vessels.

WASHINGTON, June 29.

Rumors are rife that Harlan will leave the Secretaryship of the Interior, to be succeeded by Hon. O. H. Browning, of Illinois.

Dispatches have been received, announcing the safe arrival at Queenstown, Ireland, of the monitor Miantonick, with the vessels accompanying her. The passage was made in ten days and eighteen hours; average run per day 186 miles. The heavy weather did not appear to effect the Monitor either in speed or in causing her to roll. While other vessels were lurching about and their progress checked by heavy seas, she went along comparatively undisturbed.

The season is fully commenced at Niagara. Huge tilting hoops, pretty faces, large trunks, beaver hats and diamonds are plenty.

Have we a National Disease?

S. D. Wallace, Esq. President of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, [Aug. 30, 1865] says: "It has been said that Dyspepsia is our national disease. However this may be, it cursed me, long and severe suffering. Providentially a friend furnished us with a few boxes of the HEPATIC PILLS, and the use of them has perfected a cure. In my family they have been used frequently with eminent success, among my acquaintances, many cases originating from diseased liver, have been relieved and cured by them. I regard them as an invaluable medicine, and take pleasure in forwarding this voluntary tribute."

For sale by the Druggists. Directions accompany each box. Sent to any part of the United States for $5 per dozen. Address,

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

IS a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as this has, of immense service to the large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:

Scrofula, Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, &c.

Syphilis or Venereal Disease is expelled from the system by the prolonged use of this Sarsaparilla, and the patient is left in comparative health.

Female Diseases are caused by Scrofula in the blood and are often soon cured by this Extract of Sarsaparilla.

Do not discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, while it was not. When you have used Ayer's—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agents below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, for the cure of Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Heartburn arising from Disordered Stomach, Pain or Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, and for a Dinner Pill.

They are sugar coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

COTTON GINS,

MANUFACTURED BY

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.,

COLUMBUS, GA.

WE have received the manufacture of Cotton Gins in this city, and will be prepared to fill orders by 1st June next. As we shall not be, as heretofore, represented by traveling agents, parties wishing our Gins, will confer a favor by sending in their orders at an early day. As owing to the demand, we shall be unable to keep a stock in the hands of our local agents, as it was our practice before the war. All business transactions being now reduced to cash, our sales will be made on the basis of ready pay.

Our Gins are too well known to require any special notice or commendation; we believe they are unrivalled in the chief points of excellence which go to make up a superior machine, namely: Speed light draught and good sample.

Our DOUBLE CYLINDER GINS will be found superior to the single cylinder, when planters have steam or good water power, to give them the necessary speed. In all cases when this can be done, we recommend them in preference to the single cylinder. If, however, indifferent or unsufficient power is used, they will not do as well as the single Gin.

Messrs. DEROSSET & CO., Wilmington, N. C., are our general agents for the State of North Carolina.

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.

Columbus, Ga., April 24 '66.

We will give prompt attention to orders for the above celebrated Gins from any part of the State. The price is five dollars ($5) per Saw at the Factory, and five dollars for each Gin will only be charged to purchasers for transportation to this point.
